November 23, 2015

Friends,

Last week, the AJC published a disturbing piece regarding a data breach at the Secretary of State's office.

The breach jeopardizes personal information, including social security numbers, of 6.1 million registered Georgia voters.

While I believe Secretary Kemp should be held responsible, now is not the time for politics. Right now, we need to make sure that the personal information of voters his office failed to keep safe has not been used in a nefarious manner.

If you are a registered voter, I hope you'll take the time to contact one of the three main credit bureaus to set up an initial alert to protect yourself from identity theft. Their contact information is below.

Equifax: 800-525-6285 or www.equifax.com

Experian: 888-397-3742 or www.experian.com

TransUnion: 800-680-7289 or www.transunion.com

Have a wonderful Thanksgiving!

Pat
